

GARCÍA-DIEGO INTERNATIONAL PRIZE

VII EDITION

History of Technology

RULES

1. The Juanelo Turriano Foundation announces its VII edition of the “GARCÍA-DIEGO” International Prize, of 12,000 euro, on the subject “History of Technology”, in any branch.
2. Any Spanish or foreign individuals presenting an original, unpublished work may participate in the competition.
3. All works opting for the prize shall have a “Theme” stated clearly on the front cover and may not be signed or directly identified in any way whatsoever. Participants shall submit a sealed envelope together with their work, containing a full, detailed, unequivocal identification of the author or authors of the work.
4. The work shall be submitted no later than 18:00 on 23 DECEMBER 2013, at the offices of the Juanelo Turriano Foundation:

c/ Zurbano nº 41, 1ª Planta
28010 Madrid (Spain)

5. The work shall be written in Spanish, with a printed introduction containing an executive summary of the contents and a report, having a sufficient length to enable its publication in the form of a book with approximately 200 pages. The report will be presented on PDF file format and its size must that of a file printed on standard paper 210 x 297 mm with 1.5 line spacing and top and bottom margins of 2.54 cm.
6. The competition will be judged discretionally by the Jury, consisting of a representative of the Foundation and high level academic and cultural figures. The composition and identity of its members will be published together with the decision. The Prize may not be awarded if the works presented do not conform to the rules of the competition or lack the necessary quality. The Jury may award up to three honourable mentions, of 1,000 euro each.
7. All works other than the prize-winner and honourable mentions will be returned to their authors, identified exclusively by the “Theme”, on presentation of the receipt issued when submitted.
8. The prize-winning work may be published by the Foundation should it deem fit, in which case it will be named sponsor of the study. If published, the copyright of the first edition will be assigned to the Juanelo Turriano Foundation. If the Foundation decides not to publish the work, it shall also be deemed to waive its rights in favour of the author, but whenever it is published, the Foundation must be clearly named as sponsor of the study.
9. In addition to the conditions included in Rule 8, the Foundation has the right to publish in its Web-page digital editions of the prize-winner work as well as the honourable mentions if there are any.
10. The submission of a work to the Prize implies the full acceptance of its rules.
