

The jury of the Pedro Navascués Prize for PhD Theses met on 25 March 2026.

The judges were Francisco Javier León González, Isabel Bestué Cardiel and Rosario Martínez Vázquez de Parga.

The jury noted the fine quality of the submissions and unanimously ruled to give the following prizes:

The 6000-euro Pedro Navascués Prize for PhD Theses went to the paper submitted by Daniel Sanz Platero entitled Relojes monumentales y sus campanas en Castilla y León: Patrimonio, Historia y Técnica para medida del tiempo.

The 1000-euro second prize went to the paper submitted by Jaime Pérez Martínez, entitled La evolución de la construcción naval militar debido a la escasez de material entre los reinados de Felipe V a Felipe VI. Los fenómenos de la importación y exportación naval.

The jury thanks all participants for their efforts.
